Additional Information

48 Hour Report of Contribution over $5,000 (file as needed)

- Any individual or committee that receives a single contribution over $5,000 (including a loan, see § 130.011, RSMo for the full definition of contribution) must electronically report the contribution to the MEC within 48 Hours of its receipt.
- This contribution must also be included on the committee's next filed report.
- Late filing results in late fees of $10 per day.

24 Hour Notice of Late Contribution Received (file as needed)

- Any receipt of a contribution over $250 (including a loan, see § 130.011, RSMo for the full definition of contribution) that is received less than 12 days before an election, must be reported within 24 hours of its receipt.
- This contribution must also be included on the committee's next filed report.

24 Hour Late Expenditure Report (continuing committees/PACs only) (file as needed)

- Each time a continuing committee (PAC) aggregates more than $250 in expenditures made (not including contributions made to candidates or other committees) less than 12 days before an election, a full disclosure report must be filed within 24 hours.
- Late filing results in late fees of $10 per day.

Weekends/Holidays

If the due date for filing any of the above disclosures falls on a Saturday, Sunday, or an official state holiday, the deadline is extended to the next business day (unless the due date is less than eight days prior to an election, in which case no extension applies).
